

Location

Austin, TX

Organization

Austin Police Association

Position

In-House Counsel

Job Description

The APA is actively expanding the legal services and expertise we provide to officers. In furtherance of that mission, we are hiring a full-time attorney to help us expand those services which includes:

- Representation of officers during administrative investigations and arbitration hearings.
- Counsel to the APA executive team related to general government law, enforcement of a Meet & Confer Agreement, and legislative matters.
- On scene response at critical incidents to provide guidance to officers and oversee the initial investigation as it pertains to the rights afforded to our members.
- Monitor activities of the City of Austin to ensure the City is complying with federal and state law, agency rules, and any Meet & Confer agreement.

The APA provides competitive pay and benefits which are commensurate with each employee's experience. This position is for a licensed attorney in good standing with the State Bar of Texas.

To Apply:

Interested applicants should reply via email to michael@austinpolice.com and include their resume as well as a cover letter.