

Location

Remote

Organization

Blue Victory Communications

Position

Political Communications Associate

Job Description

Blue Victory Communications is looking for a talented Political Communications Associate with a positive and hardworking attitude. Associates will help coordinate, write, and develop political messaging for a variety of Texas elected officials and political candidates. Applicants should be strong writers and have an understanding of the Texas political landscape and current events.

A communications background is strongly preferred but not required. Political experience is preferred but not required. Graphic design and video editing experience is preferred but not required. Applicants will be considered on a rolling basis with a desired start date of August 1st, 2024. This employment opportunity is fully remote with flexible hours.

Applicants must submit a resume, writing sample, and graphic/video design portfolio (if applicable). Communication Associates are paid $4,500 monthly and work 30-40 hours per week. Apply here: <https://forms.gle/EebheAKcMzjFNDqS7>

Duties and responsibilities:

Coordinate with elected officials and political candidates to draft and edit social media language and other communications projects. Help manage, develop, and deliver creative and strategic social media programs.

Requirements:

Ability to start August 1st, 2024

Communications experience

Strong writing skills

Highly organized

Preferred:

Graphic design experience

Familiarity with Google Suite and Adobe Suite, specifically Illustrator and Premiere

Who is Blue Victory:

Blue Victory Communications is one of the leading Democratic communications firms in Texas. Founded by Mason Reid in 2021, Blue Victory has supported dozens of political campaigns, PACs, and nonprofits. Our current and past clientele include State Representative James Talarico, State Representative John Bucy, The Early Childhood Caucus of the Texas House of Representatives, Texans for PROP 2, Jay Kleberg for Texas Land Commissioner, Ashika Ganguly for Austin City Council, the Agave Democratic Infrastructure Fund PAC, VoteAmerica, and more.

Blue Victory believes in “progress over profit” and has provided over $100,000 in pro bono services to Texas Democratic candidates from school board to statewide office. Our slogan is “Honest Answers, Creative Solutions” — because we believe in leading with honesty while delivering innovative, creative strategies to our clients. Our primary goal is to provide high-quality services for an affordable price so that our clients can reach more people and achieve victory.

Our services include social media management, graphic design, direct mail, web design, video production, photography, speech coaching, speech writing, communications training, political strategy, and campaign management.

To learn more, visit www.BlueVictoryComms.com.