

Julie for Congress - Student Mobilization Fellow

Julie Oliver is running one of the most progressive campaigns for a national battleground Congressional seat! Join our grassroots campaign as we use cutting-edge digital organizing strategies, especially to organize your own community at UT Austin.

Organizing, cultivating leadership, and fostering community are at the heart of everything we do on a campaign. Fellows will be learning the basics of organizing and campaign fundamentals while being an active part of the TX-25 Congressional race. You will become the face of the campaign in the district as we contact voters while gearing up for the general election. As a member of Team Oliver, your job is to help the campaign scale so we can reach the goals as laid out in the Central Field Plan! To that end, here is what to expect when you join Team Oliver!

- Go through training program (relational and traditional organizing, voter education)
- Identify 20 friends that you will be responsible for turning out
 - Make sure they're registered to vote
 - Make sure they request their absentee ballot, encourage early voting
 - Make sure they vote
- Attend Sunday 8PM student organizing calls
- Join Team Julie Slack
- Recruit at least 1 Apartment Captain
- Schedule at least 1 Student Organizing House Meeting
- Help the campaign reach out to voters across the district through phone calls, texts, and digital canvassing incl. your own social media
- Commit to volunteering approximately 5 hours/week esp. Texting
- Volunteer leader position
- Play an important role while you learn how a campaign works from the inside!
