

Julie for Congress - Student Organizer

Julie Oliver is running one of the most progressive campaigns for a national battleground Congressional seat! Join our grassroots campaign as we use cutting-edge digital organizing strategies, especially to organize your own community at UT Austin.

Organizing, cultivating leadership, and fostering community are at the heart of everything we do on a campaign.

Organizers will be learning the basics of organizing and campaign fundamentals while being an active part of the TX-25 Congressional race. You will become the face of the campaign in the district as we contact voters while gearing up for the general election.

As a member of Team Oliver, your job is to help the campaign scale so we can reach the goals as laid out in the Central Field Plan! To that end, here is what to expect when you join Team Oliver!

- Help recruit Student Mobilization Fellows (2/wk) to turn out 20 students each to vote
- Oversees and supports Mobilization Fellows
- Attends Sunday 8PM student organizing calls
- Helps the campaign reach out to voters across the district through phone calls, texts, and digital canvassing incl. your own social media
- Weekly benchmarks based on 1:1s, trainings, other goals associated with your Fellows
- Expect to commit to a minimum of 15 hours per week towards voter contact and organizing.
- Volunteer leader position
- Play an important role while you learn how a campaign works from the inside!
